*registration and vetting starts Friday 4pm

*vetting Saturday morning also

*Ride Meeting and Potluck Friday evening 6pm

*CVRD all weather multi-use trail, trestles, no elevation

*good footing, some rocks, use hoof protection

This ride is co-sponsored by the BC Competitive Trail Riders Assoc and the Endurance Riders Assoc of BC and the American Endurance Ride Conference, all respective rules apply.

Directions: From the Mainland: Take the Ferry to Duke Point or Swartz Bay (make a free Livestock reservation – and check for certain sailings that are cheaper for large rigs). Take Hwy 1 to Duncan and Google, 3590 Cavin Road, Hi Point Guest Ranch for map.

Camping: Enter early as paddock space is limited. A stall or paddock is included with overnight price until full. There is a grassy field for camping or parking with high tie, your own panels or electric fence. No power hook ups. There is porta potty, water spigots and a small lake with meeting area, very nice ranch, check out website.

Camping fees are as follows:

Overnight per horse and rider: $25 a night, paddock or stall included until full.

Day Fee: $15 per horse/rider for those arriving Saturday morning for the day (no paddock). If you want a day paddock it is $25 if available.

There is also parking by the arena on gravel if desired.

Meals: Potluck Friday night, bring your own utensils. For all other meals, please provide for your own needs.

OTHER: There is water for people and horses and a small lake for swimming. There is no farrier on site so good shoes are highly recommended and a spare boot or two as well.

Dr. Tyler Stitt will be head vet/control judge. Dogs on leash at all times.

Ride Manager: Miki Dekel, call/text 250-213-9817 for more info or Nancy Gourlay, email nancy@cheeseworks.ca for registration/entry forms.
